

Welcome to Mexico!

Hola! Welcome to Mexico!

Mexico is a big country.
Everywhere you go there is something new to see.

Here is a wide, blue sky over a warm, brown desert. A rattlesnake lies in the sun.

Here a rancher drives his cattle across the plains. They are going to the Río Bravo, which is a long and winding river.

Along the coast, the mighty ocean roars.

In the mountain forests, a bear family searches for food.

Yes, there is something different wherever you go in Mexico.
